to the Alumni in their studios. On Monday the 18th, the School will be open to the Alumni for inspection. On Tuesday, the 19th, a play will be given by the Alumni under the direction of Louise Van Voorhis Armstrong at which the Chicago Society of Artists will be the guests of honor. On the following evening the play will be repeated for the Chicago College Club. The galleries will be open each evening after the social affairs.

A very successful season was reported at the Saugatuck summer school. About fifty were enrolled in the classes, among which were more members of the Alumni than previously.

MUSEUM INSTRUCTION—The classes in the Museum Instruction Department have an exceptionally large attendance this fall, but it is still possible for those who wish to further their appreciation of art to enroll. The classes still open include Interior Decoration and Oriental Art with Mrs. Hall, and French Painting and Art in England with Miss Parker. Private lessons for those wishing to study special topics may be arranged by appointment.

DEATH OF HARRY I. STICKROTH—Harry I. Stickroth, Instructor in the School, passed away October 17. During the year and a half Mr. Stickroth has been connected with the School as Instructor of decorative portraiture and mural painting, he has endeared himself to all who have been associated with him both in the School and the Museum. His drawings were exquisite. Probably no living draughtsman made more perfect drawings. The quality of his painting was such as to put him in the forefront of the American decorative school. His untimely death just at the time he was reaching maturity is a great loss both to our School and the mural painting profession.
